

You are Invited to an

Estuary Celebration!

Saturday
July 11

Join our staff and management to celebrate South Slough's 35th anniversary and Oregon's 150th year of statehood at the Interpretive Center, 61907 Seven Devils Road.

Agenda

12 p.m.—2:30 p.m.

Meet, Greet & Eat

Learn some history of the South Slough Reserve and meet the people who work here. Learn about the Hairy Triton — Oregon's official shell.

2 p.m.—5 p.m.

North Creek Trail Hike & Footbridge Dedication

Join us for a hike on newly-opened North Creek Trail. At trail's end at the estuary shore, we will dedicate a new foot bridge spanning the waters of Sough Slough.
